AWARDING SCHOLARSHIPS:

Upon receipt of the application and required forms, the Business Manager/Financial Secretary-Treasurer of UA Local 250 will verify the eligibility of the applicant and submit the applications to the Faculty Committee at the Center of Labor Studies at LA Trade-Tech College. Judging and selection of the winners will be solely done by this independent Faculty Committee of professional educators. This Faculty Committee is independent of and outside the exercise of any choice of winners by UA Local 250.

Applicants will be given up to 20 points based upon the following criteria:

Transcript	2
Letters of Recommendation	2
Personal Experience	5
Essay	11

Winners will be notified by letter from the UA Local 250 Scholarship Committee

Unofficial transcripts (including self-generated computer grade printouts or class schedules) will not be accepted as a substitute for the official transcripts from the registrar's office of the educational institution.

Most schools have a processing period for transcripts - we strongly advise getting your transcripts as early as possible to ensure they arrive before the deadline. Late transcripts will not be considered. If the school transcript does not list your Fall "classes in progress," you must provide additional documentation along with the transcripts that clearly verifies your current full-time registration.
